The beautiful scenery and cool climate, where daily should attract a lot of tourists and monks, Buddhists to visit and Buddhist ceremonies. Locals and tourists come here offering incense in the holidays and relaxing retreat after hours of labor tension.

Dinh Cau Rock, also known as Cau Temple, is an odd-shaped natural formation in Phu Quoc Island, which local fishermen pray to before embarking on fishing excursions. Dinh Cau Rock was constructed in 1937 to commemorate Thien Hau (the goddess of the sea), whom locals believe provides protection for fishermen heading out to the open sea. There are 29 winding stone steps to reach Cau Temple's rooftop terrace, where you will be greeted with spectacular sunset views of Dinh Cau Beach, traditional fishing boats, Duong Dong Town, and neighbouring islets.

Sao Beach or Bai Sao (Vietnamese language) approximately 25km from Duong Dong Town is one of the most beautiful beaches in Phu Quoc Island with smooth white sand crescent-shaped which is limited by rocky headlands protruding into the sea.

Phu Quoc fish sauce is one of the famous sauces having created the brand for more than 200 years, which is made from the fresh anchovies rich in protein. Phu Quoc is now housing over 100 factories of fish sauce production. Visiting Phu Quoc fish sauce factories, tourists will have a chance to witness the scale of the fish sauce manufacturing facilities and the process for forming droplets of scrumptious fish sauce. The giant crates are lined up serving the demands of tourists' visiting. Phu Quoc fish sauce is popular thanks to its high in protein (36-40), the sweet taste and the delicious smell of Coc Sieu anchovies, specialty only appearing in Phu Quoc.

Sim Winery ~ Tomentose rose myrtle alcohol is considered as a Phu Quoc's specialty thank to its especially good smell and nice taste. Made of tomentose rose myrtle fruits and mostly produced by a manually fermented method. Tomentose rose myrtle blossoms and fruits almost all year round, but, according to the experience of alcohol producers, the spring crop offers the best quality fruits with a lot of honey – the best material for good alcohol.

This war museum now houses authentic torture instruments; it is believed to have detained over 40,000 Vietnamese soldiers and political figures who have opposed both French and American forces. This museum serves as a bleak reminder of Vietnam's turbulent past, where thousands people photographs of former detainees and exhibits of brutal punishments. The prison is one of Phu Quoc Island's most iconic landmarks, attracting mostly former prisoners and foreign visitors looking to learn more about Vietnam's history.

Fingernail Island (Hon Mong Tay) ~ The very first glimpse that you get of Fingernail Island before yo arrive there is just beyond words. The beach was just lonely and it just looked like a postcard image. Fingernail Island is located south of Phu Quoc in the An Thoi Archipelago and is a rarely visited dream island. If you want to do a trip to Fingernail Island, Hon Mong Tay in Vietnamese, then don't let yourself get confused by the local travel agencies. There are 2 islands with exactly the same name. One of those islands is located in the northwest of Phu Quoc and is visited often by snorkeling trips. The second Fingernail Island, which we will show you in this very article, is located south of Phu Quoc and is just heavenly.

Gam Ghi Island ~ is the privately owned island across from Hon Xuong that has a nice white and beach. On the western side of the island lies a series of rocks that resemble a flower pot. In this island you can do snorkeling at coral reef & swimming.
